FOREWORD

"Take this woman to be your Mother," were perhaps the dearest words Our Lord Jesus had spoken. With them, in the person of John the Beloved, He gave His Own Mother, Most Admirable, to be the Mother of His followers, asking them to accept her with open arms and loving hearts. She has fulfilled her Son's request, and has become a Mother dear to all.

The students of Marymount have, indeed, taken Mary, the Mother of Christ, to be their own Mother. But, more than that, they have taken Her, their Mother most Venerable, to be their personal patroness, their Mediatrix in heaven, their most precious friend. Every facet of their lives—spiritual, educational, recreational — is lived with Mary's assistance, in her love of God, by her invocation in our behalf, through Her love of us. Our students do not hesitate to call on her in their peculiar problems, nor do they fail to pay her the honor she truly deserves.

Living WITH Mary, IN Mary, BY Mary, THROUGH Mary, is undoubtedly the perfect means of existence for it means Living WITH Jesus, IN Jesus, BY Jesus THROUGH Jesus. Following this unique pattern, student life at Marymount has become a blessed, fervent, Marian Litany.

Through Mary . . .

DEDICATION

TO OUR IMMACULATE QUEEN, VIRGIN OF VIRGINS, we plead, quoting from the prayer of Pius XII for the Marian Year: "enraptured by the splendor of your heavenly beauty and impelled by the anxieties of the world, we cast ourselves into your arms, O Immaculate Mother of Jesus and our Mother Mary, confident of finding in your most loving heart appeasement of our ardent desires and a safe harbor from the tempests which beset us on every side . . . O crystal lily of all holiness, captivate our hearts with your heavenly perfume!"

On this, the one-hundredth anniversary of the promulgation of the beautiful doctrine of your Immaculate Conception, the Marian Year of Nineteen-Hundred Fifty Four, we, your loving children, thoroughly inadequately, but with reverence and devotion, dedicate this issue of the Marymountian to You, under your magnificent title, "The Immaculate Conception." With profound humility, and with a cognizance of our inferiority and imperfections, we beg you to accept our minds, hearts and this publication, as a testimony of our intense love of Thee.

Queen conceived without sin, Pray for us!

Queen Conceived Without Sin . . . Pray for Us

RT. REV. WILLIAM J. HAFEY, D.D.
Bishop of the Diocese of Scranton

In Memoriam

His Excellency, the Most Reverend William J. Hafey, who was called to his reward on May 12, 1954, had long been a source of inspiration to the students of Marymount High. His personal interest in the lives of his flock, and his concern for the spiritual and temporal welfare of his children had won for him a deep, and lasting part of our love. Because he had guarded us against the recurring evils of the world, and had shown us the way to save our souls, all his efforts will be rewarded. His tenureship had been long and fruitful and receptive in the eyes of his Master. May Mary, Queen of Apostles, keep Her son, our Bishop Hafey, near Her and Christ. May his soul rest in peace!

Queen of Apostles . . .

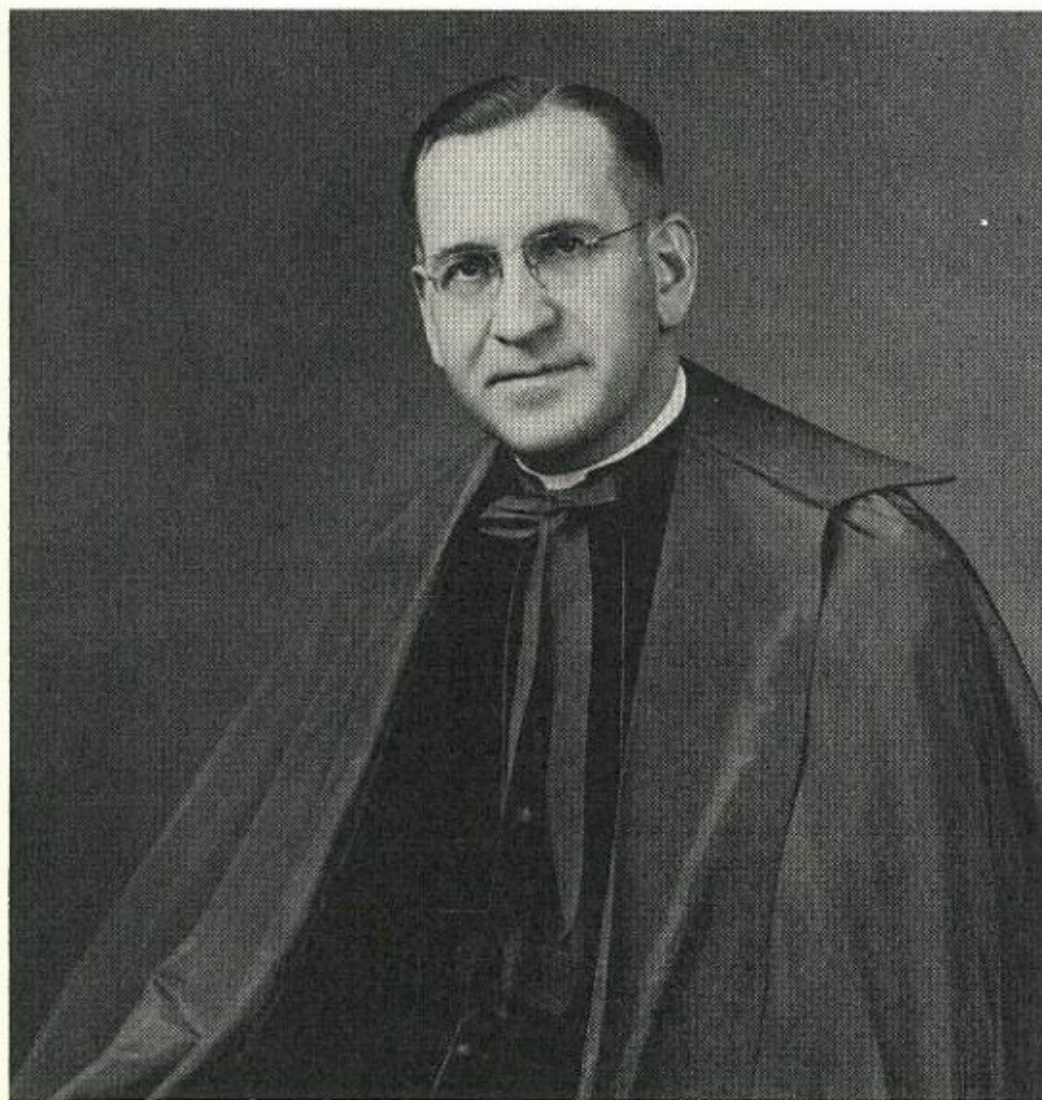

Aid Our Prelates . . .

A true friend of Marymount High School, His Excellency, the Most Reverend Henry T. Klonowski, has endeared himself to the student body of Marymount through his concern and outspoken interest in our Catholic education. We respect him as a priest of humility and dignity, love him as a prelate of true devotion to the word of God. We wish him all blessings in his chosen life; may it be always, as it is now, rich with devotion to duty, and service to his Master. May the Queen of Apostles keep our respected Auxiliary Bishop of Scranton.

The very presence of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. W. A. Losieniecki will always be a source of comfort and well-being to us at Marymount. The most effective way that we can express our gratitude to you is to entreat—"Pray continue in your unbounding faith and hope in Marymount, for you are the guiding hand of Marymount."

REV. EDMUND ADAMKIEWICZ, Assistant Pastor, Athletic Moderator, Junior Religion.

Taking a more than active interest in the affairs of Marymount High, Father Adamkiewicz has shown us that spark of love of God that makes life successful. Father is truly a successful priest, a loyal team moderator, a splendid religious teacher and a vibrant personality.

REV. VICTOR ZAWADZKI
Assistant Pastor

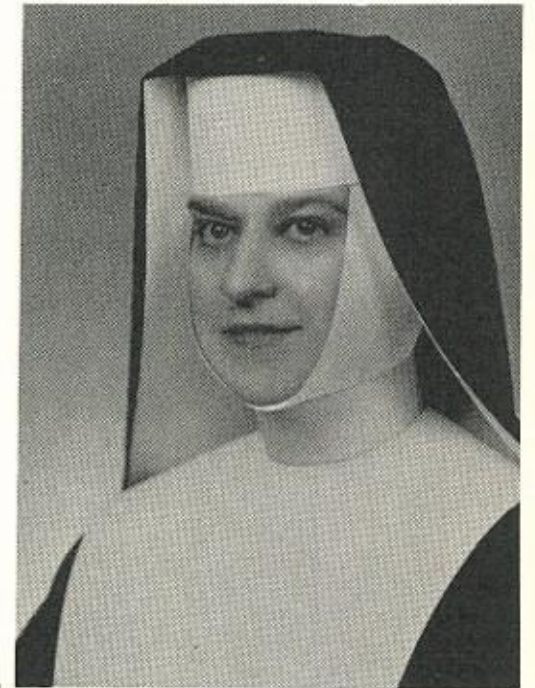

Sacrificing their very lives for their love of God and their desire to extend His Kingdom are the Reverend Sisters who have taken on themselves the awesome task of educating our youth. Plunging into this blessed labor, they have given their all to see that we become staunch Catholics and patriotic Americans.

While we may forget the everyday lessons they have taught us, we will never forget the example of their lives—dedication to the purpose, abandonment of purely worldly things, and holy wedlock to Jesus Christ. They do not receive the praise of the world, nor do they expect or want it. We shall always desire to become in some small way comparable to our dear Sisters.

Mary, Queen of Queens, Pray for our devoted Sisters.

For his ready smile, an understanding heart for our problems, and a quick response to our needs, we toast Father Victor Zawadzki. His mere presence on the scholastic scene effects a sense of confidence in our school.

We are grateful for his interest, and extend sincere wishes for a full and happy life.

The task of maintaining the appearance of our High School is not an easy, yet often, thankless one. Our maintenance staff, Mr. John Gutkowski, Mrs. Phyllis Martz, Mr. Charles Elick, work diligently behind the scenes to make Marymount a pleasant and beautiful place. God bless them for all the hours they've worked on unnoticed, and a long-delayed "Thank you" from the student body.

Knowing, Loving God Through Mary Gate of Heaven . . .

The emphasis on the spiritual life of Marymount's students is evidenced in the varied spiritual functions which are the most vital portions of high school activity. The sincere belief that man is on earth, simply that he might gain heaven, is of primary interest in the Marymount curriculum.

With the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and daily rosary during Mary's months of May and October, and Holy Hour Devotion and solemn high Mass each First Friday of the month, the student is prompted and urged in the active, public worship of His Creator. Through the annual spiritual retreat, he is given ample opportunity to be with his God. Beginning and ending each individual class with an acknowledgement of the glory of the Trinity, the student is reminded of the necessity of a thorough knowledge of God alone. Religion lectures twice weekly by Monsignor Losieniecki and Father Adamkiewicz prepare him for life as a practicing, God-fearing Catholic. Visitations to the Blessed Sacrament, weekly classes in Gregorian Music, and the frequent reception of the sacraments round out the student's spiritual life.

We may be sure that the wide program of religious activity is succeeding in increasing student desire for knowledge of God, his yearning for acquiring true love of God, and his eagerness to serve Him fully, for the entire arrangement is placed in the assuring hands of Mary, Gate of Heaven. It is through reliance on the Entrance to Paradise, that the student will find completion of his spiritual life. "To Jesus, through Mary," will always be the cry of Marymount's proteges, as they plead that She guide them lest they run amiss, that she be willing and ready to welcome them when they finally stand before the portals of His Kingdom.

Gate of Heaven, Pray for us!

Sister Ardeen's freshman class has learned the value of beginning the school day with an earnest plea for God's blessing.

"What is the Christian concept of marriage?" questions Monsignor W. A. Losieniecki of Joan Pelchar and the senior class in his course on the Church's official teachings of marriage.

In his religion class, Father E. Adamkiewicz lectures to the juniors on the value of Truth.

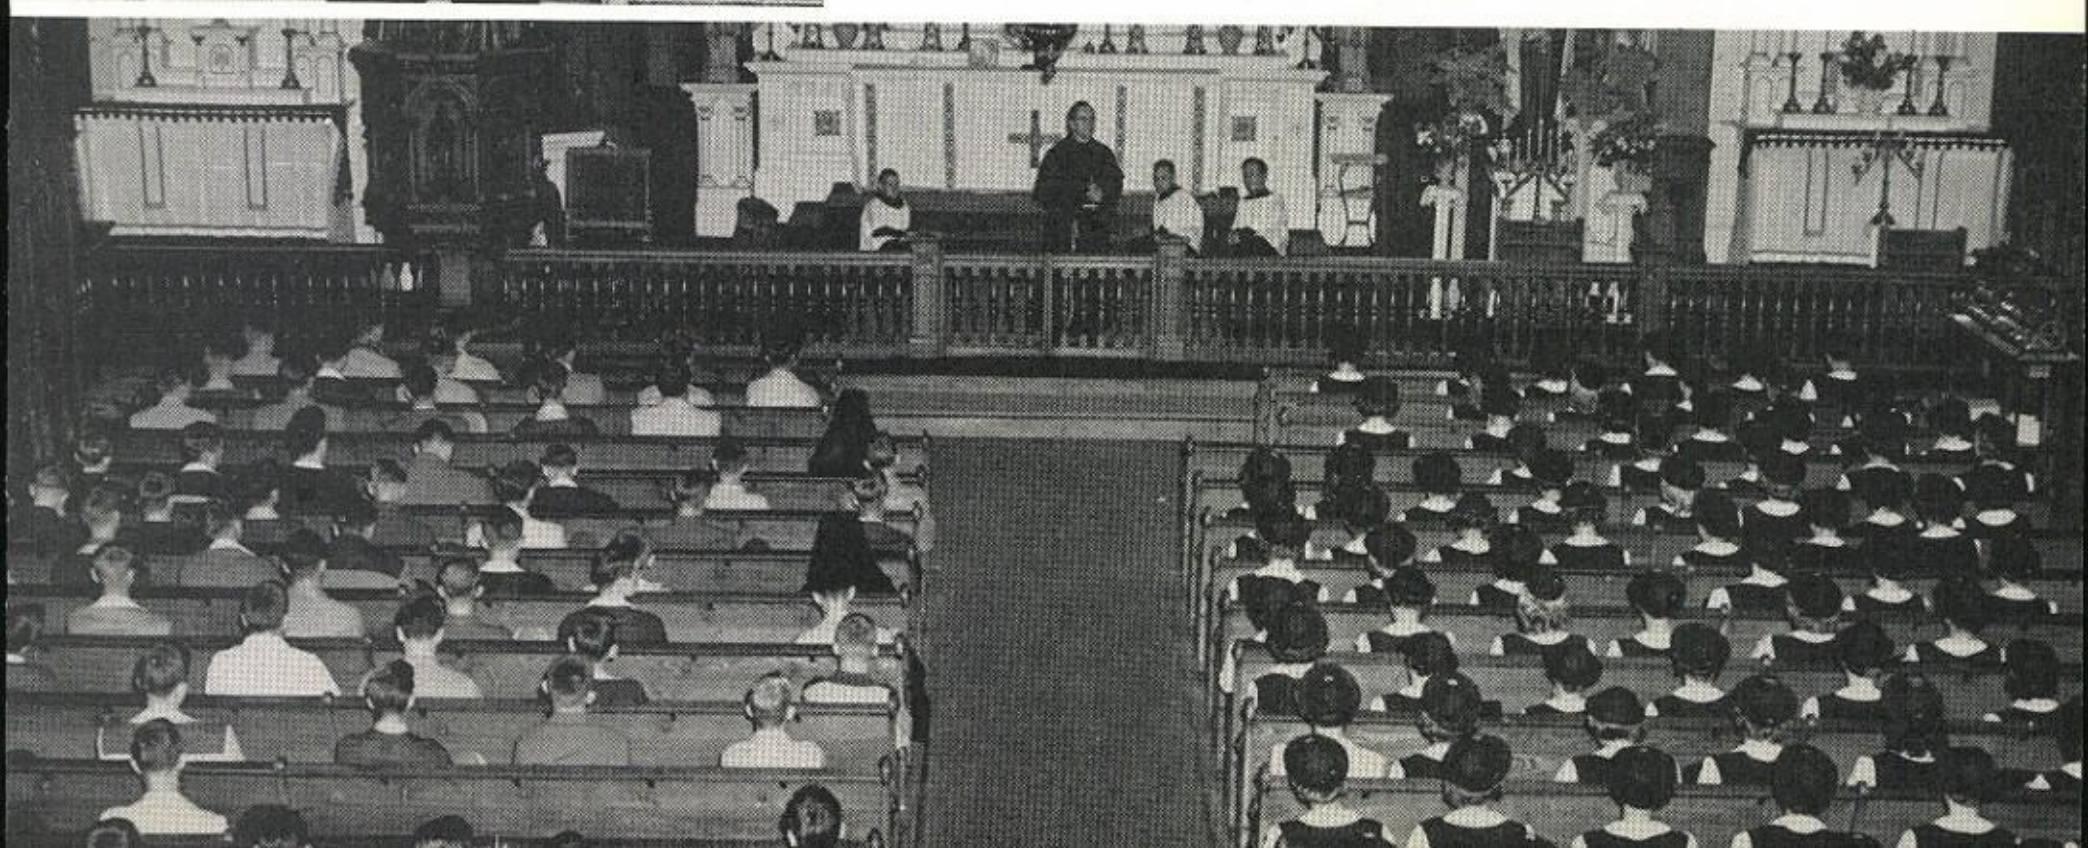

Top right: The retreatants, realizing the need for spiritual revitalization, assemble in church for a spiritual conference.

Top left: Some consolation for their temporal and spiritual cares, is found by the members of the senior class through spiritual reading.

The annual retreat held early in October each year, is the first of many spiritual outlets which Marymount offers. It is held at the beginning of the school year, to secure God's blessings. The retreat was conducted by the Rev. Conrad Miller of the Franciscan Fathers of Ellicott City, Maryland. Through his inspiring conferences, he urged complete devotion to Mary, a suggestion heartily followed by all Marymountains.

Bottom: Father Miller holds the students in rapt attention as he discourses on the wondrous Holy Eucharist during Retreat Holy Hour.

Mother of God . . . Pray for Us

Monsignor Losieniecki, during the Christmas Program, Dec. 22, blesses the Christmas tree, a reminder of the true symbolism of the beautifully decorated fir tree—salvation.

Above: Together with Monsignor, the student body recite the 95th Psalm at the tree-blessing ceremony, an annual affair at Marymount.

Left: The Advent Wreath, the first at Marymount, is blessed each week preceding Christmas, and reminds us of the solemnity of the season.

Here, J. Iwanowski, representing the senior class, lights the first candle. In the next three weeks, J. Pytell '55, J. Lis '56, and W. Kupniewski '57, took this role. Sister M. Victorine, principal, led the ceremony.

Left: Christmas time and lunch time at Marymount mean one thing—a minute's visit with the Infant Jesus at the Christmas crib. Some juniors find a few blissful moments in the company of their baby Friend.

Below: The junior panelists, left to right: B. Skindziel, E. Ostrowski, G. Dubinski, R. Pienta, and S. Wielgopolski, members of the Polish class, discuss the trials and tribulations in the life of St. Stanislaus at the program honoring him on the 700th anniversary of his martyrdom.

"Ego te absolvo . . ." are the words of hope and faith to these Marymountians approaching the sacrament of penance.

In a scene from the life of St. Stanislaus Day Program, Saint Stanislaus, (J. Bobrowski, '55) reprimands King Boleslaus (T. Maziukiewicz, '55) for his un-Christianlike attitude while a puzzled page, (R. Smith, '55) watches the scene.

Dear Lady of Peace

The story of Lourdes confirms the Blessed Mother's pleasure at the dogma of the Immaculate Conception as the Lady, (Theresa Rowny, '54) appears to Bernadette, (Germaine Macaravage, '54).

Bottom: Again in 1917, when her children had great need of Her, the Virgin appeared at Fatima to Francesco, (Edmund Bockowski, '55), Jacinta, (Rita Iorio, '54) and Lucia, (Marion Biezup, '55).

With the celebration of the Marian Year, Marymount produced "Mary's Crown of Glory," a tableau and pantomime, at the annual Open House, January 13. The scenes were representative of all the honor Mary has shown upon the human race, as evidenced at Lourdes and Fatima, of the efforts of man to show his gratitude, and of the actions and duties which man must do to save the world through Mary—Consecration, Repentance and the Rosary. Each scene was accompanied with a running narration, and beautiful Mary hymns by the unseen Girls' Chorus.

Mary's Day, February 11, was the occasion for a renewal of the dedication to Mary and a special Holy Hour in Her honor.

Virgin Most Pure . . .

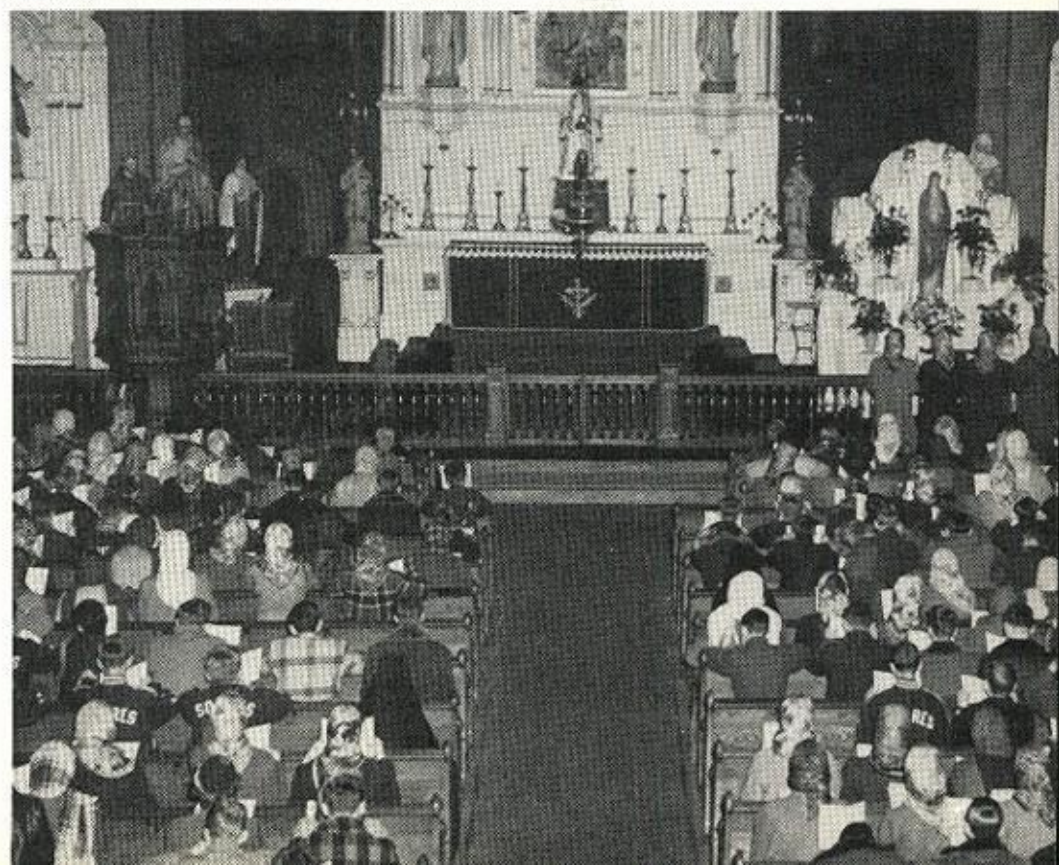

Pius IX (Joseph Bobrowski '55) proclaims the dogma of the Immaculate Conception calling the world to honor Mary as conceived without original sin.

Center: Germaine Macaravage, Captain of the Fighting 69th, conducts the ceremony of the induction of 69'ers after the initial campaign which netted 142 members.

Right: Always with the thought of complete dedication to Mary in all actions, Marymountians recite the act of consecration before an altar of the Blessed Lady. No wonder She blesses our school!

Cultivating the Mind and Memory

Thru

Mary

Seat of Wisdom . . .

The gaining of a thorough knowledge in the standard subjects, imbued and saturated with their application to leading a good life, is a firm principle of Marymount's curriculum. It offers a wide and varied selection, the students' present and future need.

Rapid use of the mind's calculatory powers is nurtured through the mathematical courses, algebra, trigonometry and geometry, making the student a thinking, reasoning individual. The mind is familiarized with the recorded deeds of past generations through the study of history. They are schooled in the intricate lanes of the sciences, biology, chemistry, physics. With the acquisition of a knowledge of language, Latin, French, Polish, English, their minds are edified and broadened culturally. Preparation for entrance into the business world is accomplished through the practical courses of stenography, bookkeeping and typing. With the earnest application of the student, a masterful knowledge of all subjects can be benefited.

Our education does not end with graduation from Marymount, but continues throughout life—education in the light of Catholic philosophy, Christian doctrine, under the mantle of Mary. Such an education will not come to naught, for it is directed to a far better end, the attaining of heaven.

Forenski, A. Falczyk, D. Elick, R. Horan, S. Iwanowski, F. Jamula, R. Kozokas, F. Kramer, B. Kryger, D. Lovendusky, S. Lewandowski, E. Lemanski, M. Laffey, W. Kupniewski, R. Krzywicki, M. Malinauskas, J. Manganello, D. Margalski, R. Meshko, L. Metura, M. Michaels, J. Slawinski, C. Ostrowski.

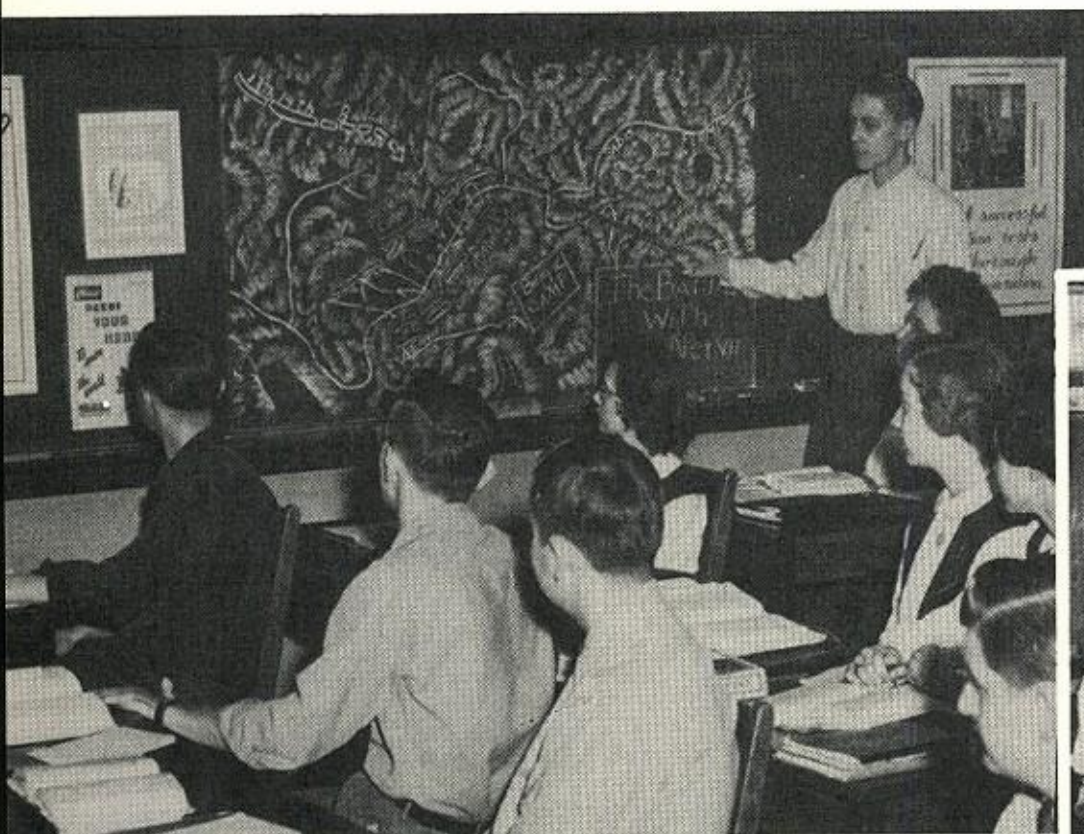

A. Valushin, A. Pietraszko, C. Wengroski, study Poland's cultural contributions with S. Nepomucene in the Polish class.

French taught by Sister Charlotte becomes the active, practical language it is, when French students, M. Wielpiszewski, J. Pytell, and B. Oberts identify the parts of "la tete."

Miss M. Creasy, juvenile section librarian at Wilkes-Barre's Osterhout Free Library, who spent a day with Marymount's English classes, points out one of the better modern-day authors to P. Ochman and B. Ripski.

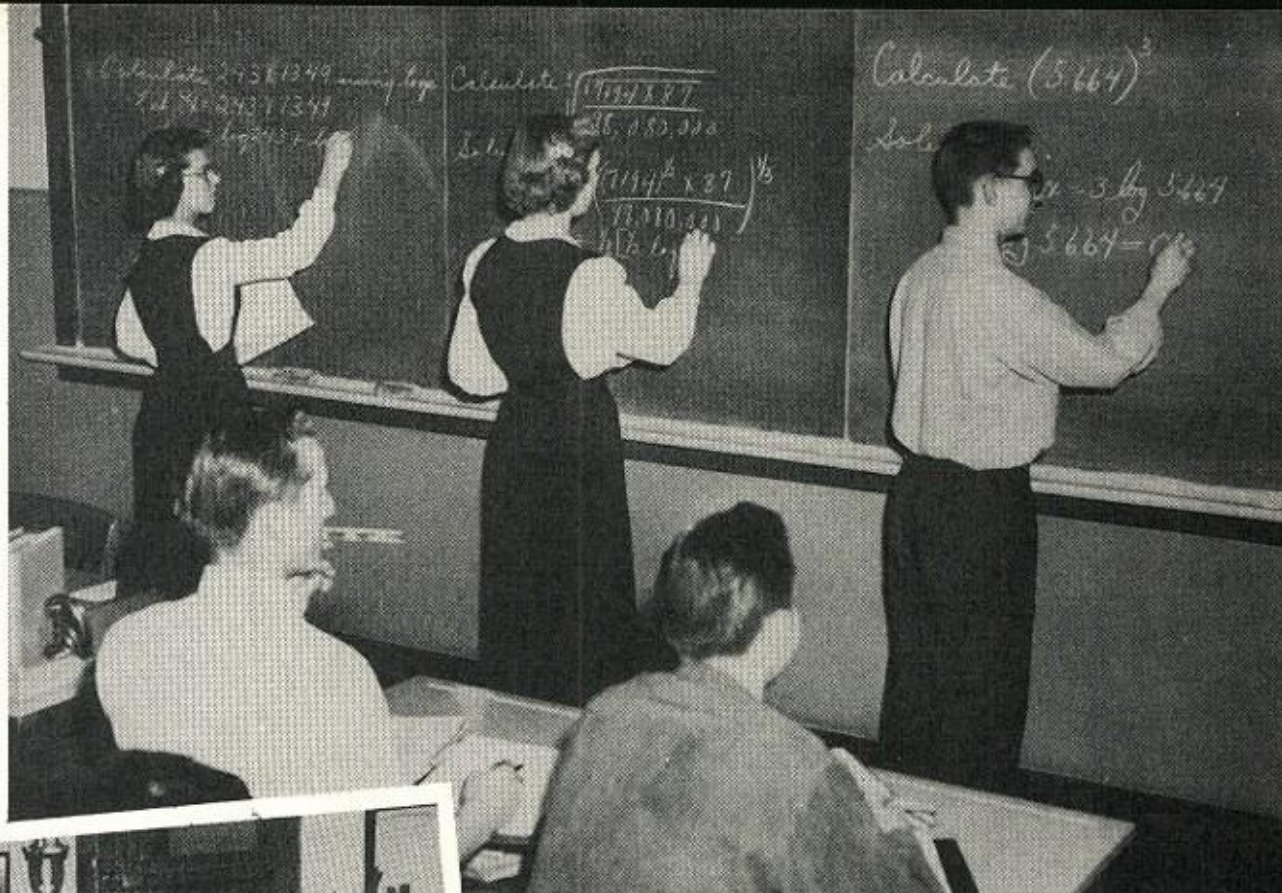

Remapping Caesar's strategy in his "Battle With the Nervii" are members of Sister Sylvia's second year Latin class, with the "Commandant," J. Marchlinski.

"Resolved: That baseball is the favorite American sport," may not be a topic of world importance for discussion, but J. Zawistowski, R. Kozloski, L. Plesnar, D. Spornoga, B. Guresh, and the sophomore English class find it excellent for debate training.

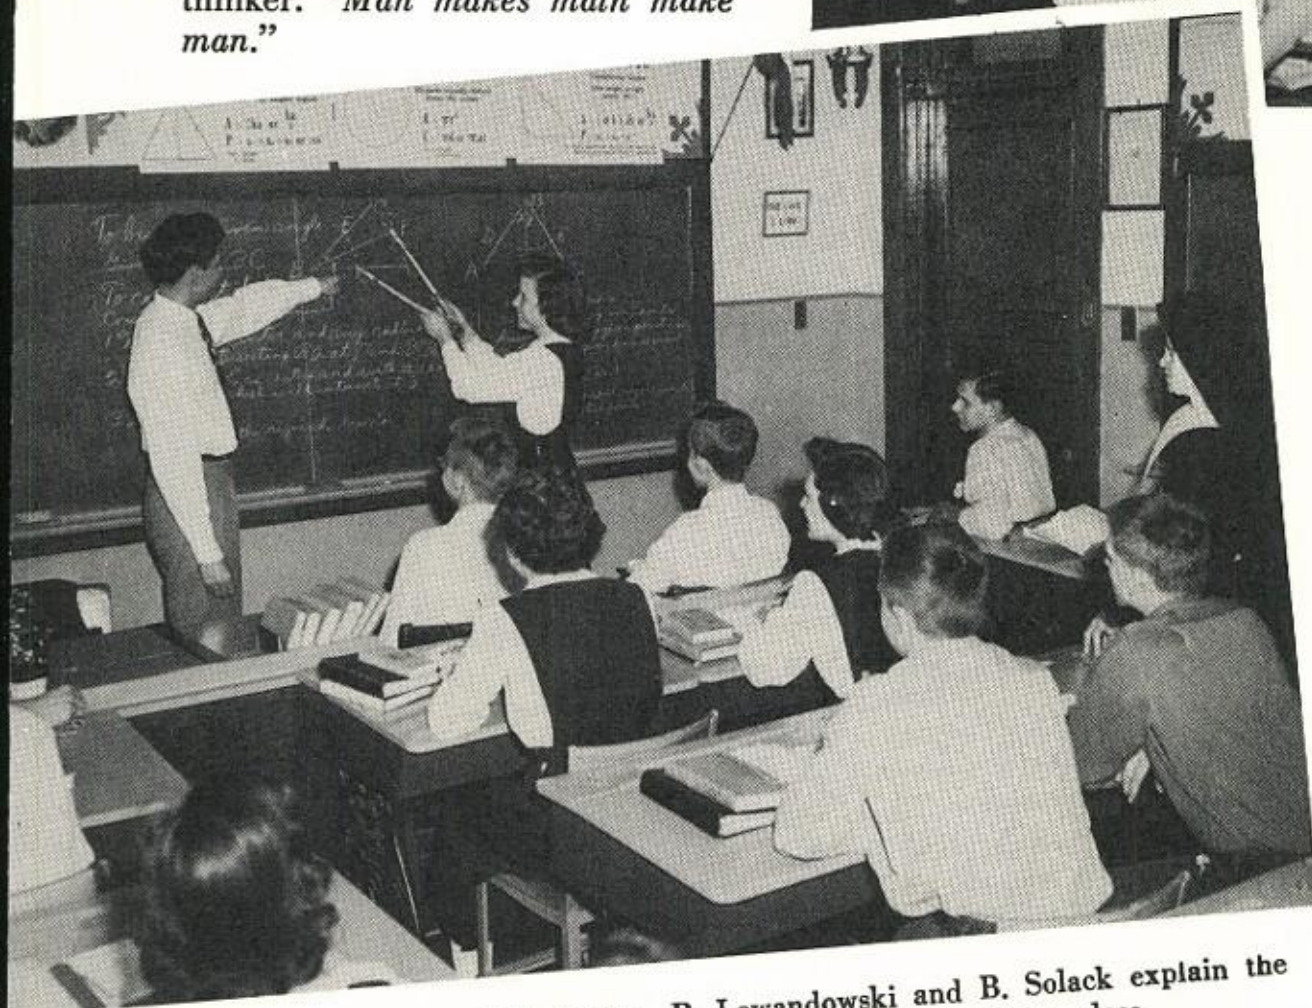

Mathematics

"Math makes the man." Paraphrasing the old quotation, Marymount tries to prove it true with her students in the arithmetical arts. Careful analysis, sound reasoning, correct application of principles — these qualities are coupled with solid geometry, physics, and algebra. These same characteristics are imbued in the math student—producing a great thinker. "Man makes math make man."

B. Wilk, J. Iwanowski, and B. Janowski find the path of calculations easy-going through the use of trigonometric functions.

With the aid of blackboard illustration, P. Lewandowski and B. Solack explain the intricacies of angle bisection to Sister Prudentia's plane geometry class.

Queen of Patriarchs . . .

D. Spernoga proposes that her problem has no errors, while A. Pietraszko completes the solving, in the sophomore algebra class.

SCIENCE

"Protozoa . . . velocity equals acceleration times time . . . atmospheric pressure, normal . . ." are some of the expressions you might hear Marymount's young scientists using, while they peruse nature's secrets in the general science, biology and physics classrooms.

Below: A thrilling moment in physics class, L. Mroz, L. Dicton, R. Washick, B. Zasada, J. Iwanowski, G. Slabinski, discover that the theory of lead having a lesser density in salt water is correct. (Just as the physics text says.)

Accuracy in weights and measurements is learned by the General Science class through the use of laboratory instruments.

Right center: Microscopes, cutting tools and clams are the requisites for an exciting, stimulating session of biology with these sophomore biology students.

Below: Pinpointing a spot on the Pennsylvania state map are F. Ripka, R. Owens, N. Washick, and P. Wolliver, members of freshman Pennsylvania history class.

Sister Charlotte supervises the health class students as they help revive their classmates who "have fainted."

Left: Three students, B. Ostrowski, A. Poplawski, A. Kuczynski, learn the procedures of filing through practical experience.

Right: Eyes fixed on their tablets, three senior typists, J. Pelchar, H. Bednarz, Y. Baran, tap away at their new Royals, while R. Kiszka computes a sum on the adding machine.

Center: Sophomore business students strive carefully to put debits and credits into their proper columns in the bookkeeping class.

"Take this letter," says Sister Vincent to her senior stenography students as J. Grohowski, T. Stanczak, P. Hawk, and J. Manganello await her first words.

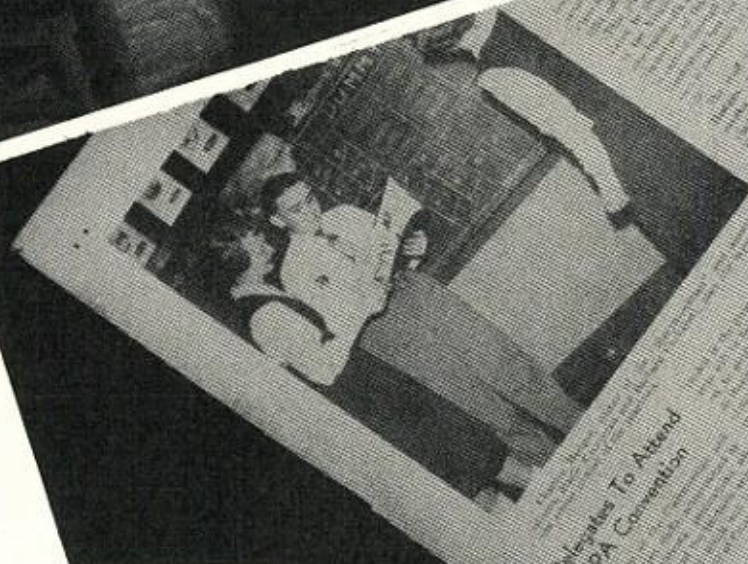

R. Kiszka demonstrates the use of the adding machine (note the presence of pennies on the table) to J. Grohowski, J. Manganello, and C. Hodges. J. Pelchar industriously continues typing.

Virgin Most Prudent . .

CLUBS

Below: Taking the "Conservation Pledge" are the outdoorsmen of Marymount, members of the Sports Club.

Below: Drawing on the culture of old France, members of the French Club play a French parlor game, complete with song and action.

Thoroughly interested in their work of discussion and research on life's problems, members of the Good Counsel Club plan a project.

Mother Most Amiable . . .

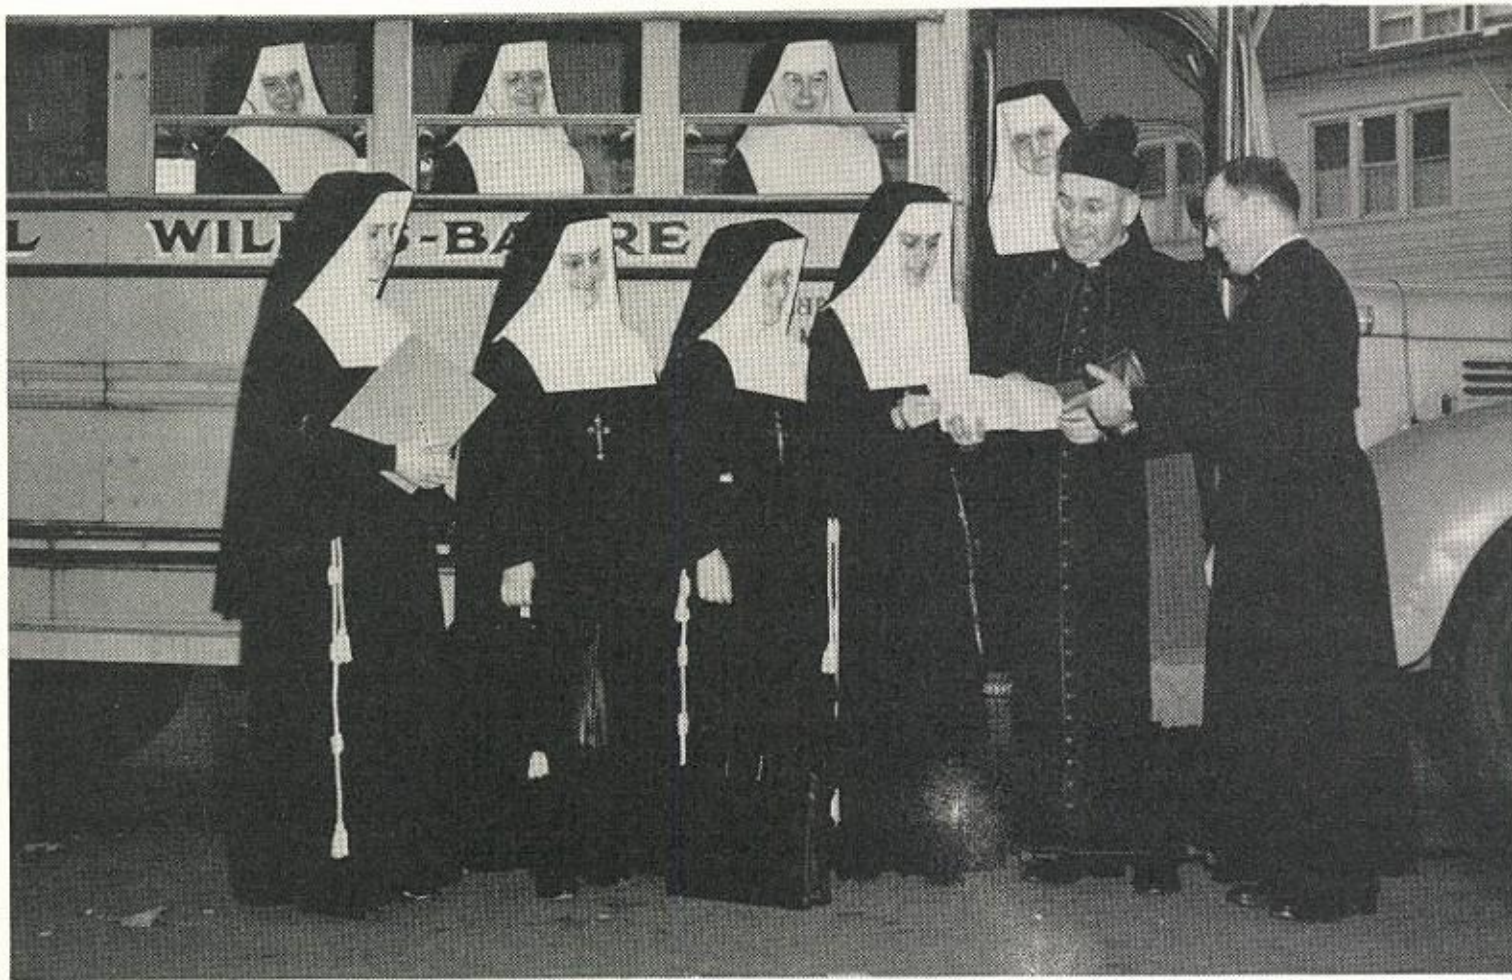

Below: Art Club members are seen creating bulletin board displays and the schoolpaper cartoons.

Mother of Our Creator . . .

Members of Marymount's faculty preview the sessions they will attend at the teachers' convention at Marywood College, October 14. Left to right are, seated in bus: Sister M. Laurenta, Sister M. Charlotte, Sister M. Nepomucene and Sister M. Sylvia, (boarding bus) Sister M. Vincent, Sister M. Ardeen, Sister M. Prudentia, Sister M. Victorine, Monsignor W. A. Losieniecki and Father Edmund Adamkiewicz.

Members of the Quill and Scroll Club snapped at the Press Conference, Columbia University, New York City, are: Joan Arcovitch, Josephine Valitus, Barbara Ripski, Barbara Czekalski, Marie Nowakowski, and Sister M. Laurenta, Marymount publications advisor.

All posed and pretty for the cameraman, are these science students on tour at some of Philadelphia's finest museums, Franklin Institute and Independence Hall among them, on April 3.

Queen of the Rosary Honored at Marian Musicale

Above: With the song, "Immaculate," the chorus kneels in veneration of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, portrayed by Jeanette Lis.

Center: "Oh What a Beautiful Day" sing Geraldine Dubinski and Bernard Oberts in a delightful duet.

Bottom: Marymount's choral group and orchestra make their debut at the Marian Musicale.

Bottom: Professor Fred Schmidt conducts the Marymount orchestra in a lively rendition of "Ciribiribin."

Finding Happiness In All Activities Through Mary

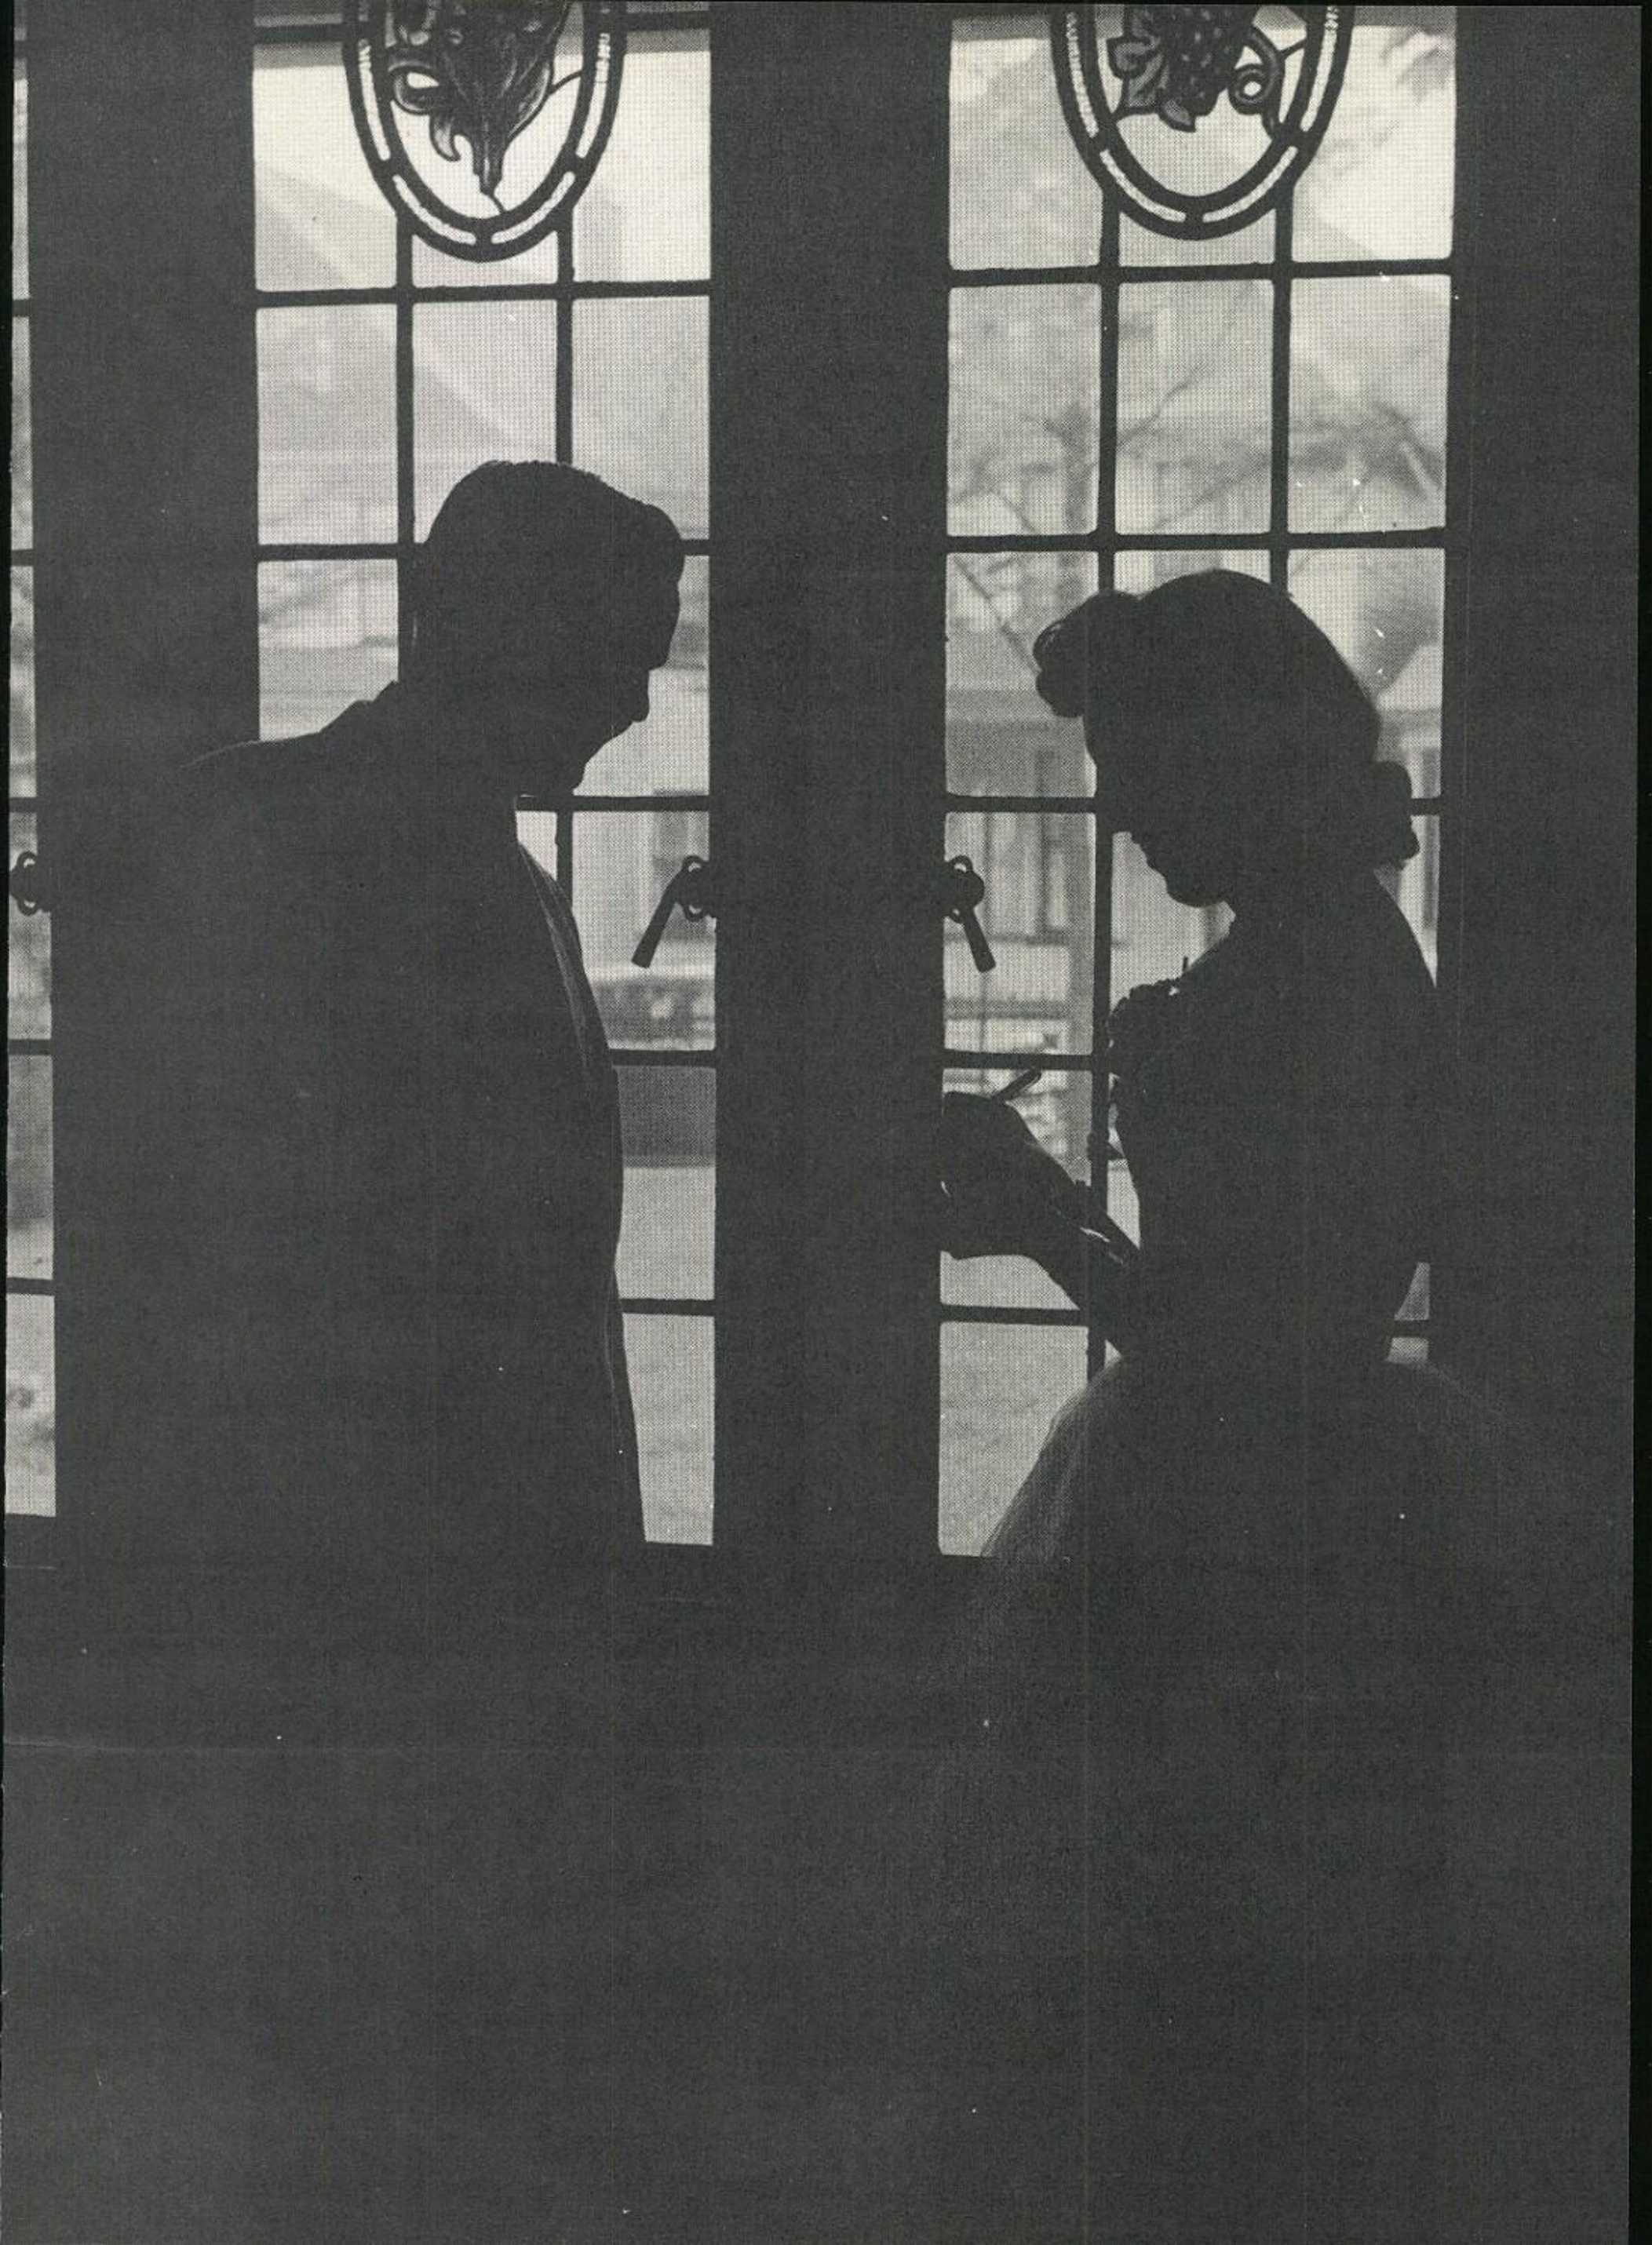

Cause of Our Joy . . .

The familiar old axiom, "All work and no play, maketh Jack a dull boy," is a sufficient warning, warranting the varied forms of recreation at Marymount High. A special program is continually in progress under the jurisdiction of the school, for the exclusive purpose of the student.

For those attracted to the lure of the stage, Marymount provides countless plays and programs for dramatic expression. For those who are athletically active, Marymount has a championship team of three successive years, champions not only in League standings, but also in sportsmanship and competition. Baseball, too, is offered to its youthful fans. For all, the annual traditional dances, the Freshman Hop, Sno-Ball, Valentine, the Junior Prom among others, give the students an opportunity for social fraternization, meeting new friends, exchanging thoughts, views. In all functions, cooperation among the participants is stressed as a positive way to success, thereby molding the students to the life of cooperation they must live in future communities.

These social outlets are not conducted for their sake alone, since they can be effectively channeled into making the student a more refined, dignified, socially-aware individual. Under the watchful eye of those in authority, they are a wholesome, all-American means of self-expression, and most important, they are not detrimental to the soul, but aides to personal sanctification. We are constantly reminded of their place in life and are urged to dedicate even our leisure activities and avocations to Mary who is the source of all happiness.

Cause of true joy, Pray for us!

Prom

Radiant young ladies, handsome escorts and a dreamy orchestra was the combination for a happy evening in May at our Junior Prom. Under a bevy of glittering stars, glittering hearts felt the list of the music and danced "on clouds" to the music of Herbie Greene. Smartly and exquisitely attired couples relaxed and chatted quietly with their friends, or explored the miniature rock garden in search of "good wishes."

The highpoint of the evening's activity, was the coronation of the statue of the Blessed Virgin, for Mary had been enthroned at an altar in a spot specially reserved for her. Taking time out from their own personal pleasure, the dancers gathered near the guardian of their activity, and sang her praises. Mary even then was remembered as they prayed, "Most Beautiful Queen, Pray for Us."

To the melodious "Stardust," young men and women waltz the evening away.

J. Hawk, B. Wilk, and T. Rowny pose smilingly with their escorts, J. Balog, R. Norczyk, and E. Balicki.

Mother
Most Renowned

Sitting this one out are G. Macaravage and her escort, R. Muskus, and G. Slabinski and her escort, F. Pugliese.

Mary honored at Prom time! J. Manganello crowns her statue as F. Purta, M. Czereszko and her escort sing her praises.

Surprised by their secret wishes which they discovered hidden in the rock garden are B. Czekalski, L. Sawicki, D. Cislo and E. Czerniakowski, prom chairman.

With a few minutes' intermission, G. Fazarich and J. Iwanowski visit with M. Karlowicz and B. Gallagher.

B. Lastowski, S. Weiss, B. Janowski and Y. Baran reflect the atmosphere of the Prom, gaiety and happiness.

Monsignor Losieniecki blesses the school rings assisted by J. Bobrowski, '55, program chairman.

Above: Monsignor Losieniecki having just pronounced the blessing on the rings, distributes them to the seniors. R. Washick receives a word of congratulations.

Above: Miss Marymount in the person of Mary Drank, '55, presents J. Iwanowski with that long-awaited treasure, the school ring.

House of Gold . . .

Left: R. Kochuba, '55, chairman of the junior dance, discusses last minute details with her committee members, S. Wisniewski, '55, J. Pytel, '55, B. Solack, '55 and J. Sauchak, '55.

With thoughts of the Zider Zee and Little Dutch boys, B. Rominski '55, L. Palkiewicz '55, B. Ripski '55, and A. Mikush '55 add a bit of Holland to the program as B. Bednarski '55, J. Arcovitch '55, B. Skiendziel '55, and P. Lusnia '55 look on.

A job well done! The entire Junior cast of the Thanksgiving Day show take a final bow.

Thanksgiving Day at Marymount is a dual celebration, that of the senior Ring Ceremony, and the junior "Turkey-Day Program."

At the ring ceremony, a more solemn portion, the school rings are blessed and distributed to the seniors. This ritual marks the first of the many occasions which are peculiar to the senior year.

The happier, vibrant half of the program is the junior Thanksgiving show, with song, dance, laughter and a touch of sentiment. Both are well-remembered as sweet memories in the senior year.

"Cherokee on the warpath" as R. Smith '55, T. Czerniakowski '55, M. Papko '55, J. Stasik '55, S. Wielgopolski '55, and T. Sherill '55 dance an Indian Dance.

Do the bunny hop-hop, hop, hop, with all joining in at the "Fall Frolic."

Tension mounts as candidates for Queen promenade toward the stage, anxiously awaiting the announcement of the decision of the student body who had voted previously.

Pattie Hawk, '54, assists the Queen, Theresa Rowny, '54, with a lovely orchid corsage which was presented to Her Majesty in behalf of the junior class.

T. Czerniakowski, '55, has the pleasure of the first dance with T. Rowny, '54, Sno-Ball Queen.

Below: Round and round the Christmas tree dance the court of Her Majesty.

Amidst a winter wonderland, Theresa Rowny, '54, is crowned "Sno-Ball Queen" by T. Czerniakowski, '55, and J. Straub, '55, chairman and co-chairman, as her attendants, P. Hawk, '54, R. Pienta, '55, and S. Weiss, '54, share in her happiness.

Above: E. Czerniakowski, President of the Quill and Scroll Club and J. Zawistowski, chairman of the Gift Wrapping Contest, award first prize to Leona Plesnar, for her most beautifully wrapped package. Runners-up were Lucille Pinkowski and Ann Marie Mushell.

Right Center: "You're all I want for Christmas," sings G. Slabinski to someone special among her listeners.

Below: Presenting their own unique arrangement of "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" and "Santa Baby," is the Senior Quartette, J. Balog, R. Washick, E. Czerniakowski and C. Hodges.

Dramatizing the burning of anthracite coal for the first time are M. Laffey and R. Starzecki.

Above: Pennsylvania's contribution to the coal-mining industry is enacted by the freshman boys.

The Bell Trio provides a grand selection of melodies for the students' dancing pleasure.

Refuge of Sinners . . .

A group of senior girls enjoy a friendly chat between dances.

Students "swing and sway" to the music furnished at the "Cupid Caper."

FRESHMAN DAY

The ghost of a freshman put in her appearance in the play of the same name, given by the seniors at the Freshman Day Program. Left to right, are: G. Macaravage, P. Hawk, M. Pikul, G. Slabinski, J. Iwanowski.

Queen of Angels . . .

In a little red schoolhouse reminisce the senior girls. They are: B. Wilk, B. Zasada, T. Rowny, B. Czekalski, F. Purta, M. Czereszko, J. Pisak.

In the annual Junior-Senior game, Tom Czerniakowski, '55, drops one more in that aided his team defeat the seniors 53-52.

Representing cheerleaders of old, junior and senior cheerleaders add their cheers and songs to the first rally.

Bernie Burawski leaps into the air to grab a rebound as Ed Czerniakowski (partially hidden) and Tom Czerniakowski (No. 6) watch.

Our Lady of Victory . . .

Mounts and opponents jump into the air after a rebound in the Alumni game. Marymount players include M. Papko, (No. 9) and T. Czerniakowski, (No. 6).

Pray
